The American International School in Egypt is one of the leading private, co-educational, institutions serving the local and international communities on two campuses in Cairo and Sheik Zayed City. The East Campus opened its doors to its first 240 students in 1990 and the West Campus opened in 2009. AIS West is a member of Educational Services Overseas Limited (ESOL), a group of ten American and British schools spanning six countries and three continents.

AIS West faculty members are all certified teachers, many from the United States and Canada, with 40% holding advanced degrees.

American International School West, offers an American Diploma Program and an International Baccalaureate Diploma Program with IB certificates in selected courses.

The high school academic program consists of seven classes organized into four eighty-five minutes blocks per day that rotate, equally. All core classes are yearlong, divided between two semesters, for approximately 180 instructional days.

AIS West's American diploma is recognized by the Egyptian Ministry of Education as equivalent to the Egyptian General Secondary Certificate. American International School in Egypt, West graduated its first class of 21 students in 2014. As members of the National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC), its international affiliate (Intl ACAC) and the American School Counselor Association (ASCA), AIS West counselors are bound by the ethical practices of these organizations.
